The SEC makes this request in light of the fact that undersigned counsel, as well as two other attorneys from the SEC’s Denver Regional Office, have recently appeared in this matter and will be supervising and leading the litigation going forward. (See Doc. 233.) We respectfully request a brief extension of the deadlines in order to allow new counsel to work with current SEC counsel to educate ourselves on the matter and be prepared to discuss the status with counsel for Defendants and the Court.
